

Sustainability Education Intern

Wages: Volunteer, with opportunity to gain course credit, and letter of recognition

Hours Per Week: 15-20

Expected Dates of Employment: January 20, 2020 –April 27, 2020, with possibility for extension

NATURE OF WORK

Contribute toward the successful implementation and management of urban farm spaces at Orlando Recreation Centers. Facilitate care and harvesting to promote food accessibility across Orlando. Consistent communication with the Sustainability Project Coordinator on urban farms progress and necessitates. Assist in coordinating workshops and monthly training sessions that will be held at our community centers.

Special skills to be gained include the following:

- Opportunity to work as part of a team of sustainability professionals in local government
- First-hand experience working with sustainability policy in action
- Increased knowledge regarding livability/ local food policies and programs
- Networking and public outreach/education
- Knowledge in urban farming practices

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Excellent oral and written communication skills. Comfortable with regular email correspondence and occasional phone support as needed. Proficiency of basic computer and web applications (e.g., Microsoft Office, Outlook, etc) required.

Ideal candidate is highly-motivated, team-oriented, and reliable, with excellent attention to detail and critical thinking abilities, and good time management skills. Experience with growing food in an urban environment is a plus.

Must have transportation. Valid Florida driver's license is required and a background check will be conducted prior to hire. Please contact Maeven Rogers at maeven.rogers@cityoforlando.net or 407.246.3729 for more information.

GREEN WORKS ORLANDO

Orlando City Hall · 400 South Orange Avenue · 6th Floor
PO Box 4990 · Orlando, FL 32802-4990
P 407.246.2781 · cityoforlando.net/greenworks